It is understood that, as to the Debtors, “Attorneys’ Eyes Only” includes the Debtors’ paralegals and document database vendor, as reasonably necessary to comply with the Protocol Order. To the extent HW is unable to provide counsel for the Debtors with an email address for each Alleged Victim named on the List, the Debtors agree to conduct reasonable searches for such email addresses at HW's expense. The cost of conducting reasonable searches for the email addresses of Alleged Victims shall be included in the Cost Estimate, as defined and described in Paragraph <sup>12</sup>~~8~~ below.

2. Search Fields. Counsel for the Debtors shall conduct a search for, and produce, all non-privileged emails from the Email Accounts, without date restriction (the "Searches"), where (i) either of the Email Accounts appears in the "to", "from", "cc" or "bcc" fields, and (i) an email address for any Alleged Victim appears in the "to", "from", "cc" or "bcc" fields.<sup>2</sup> The results of such Searches shall be produced in TIFF format with a corresponding load file (the "Production"). Counsel for the Debtors shall mark the Production "Highly Confidential".

3. Production. The Production shall be provided by counsel for the Debtors to counsel for HW, counsel for the Committee and HW (collectively, the "Recipients"). protective order, to be submitted to the Court for approval, which will govern the use of any document within the Production (the “Protective Order”); provided, however, that the Parties agree that any restriction on the use of any document in the Production as set forth and contained herein shall not prohibit or restrict dissemination of any document in the Production by counsel for HW to any criminal law enforcement and/or prosecuting authority. For the avoidance of doubt, the Production (including any document obtained via the Production or the substance of any document obtained via the Production) shall not be provided to any other person or entity or made public, except as may be expressly provided for herein or in the Protective Order. The cost of negotiating and drafting the Protective Order shall be included in the Cost Estimate, as defined and described in Paragraph 8 below.

5. Notwithstanding any reference in this Protocol Order to the Parties entering into and/or negotiating and/or agreeing to a protective order or confidentiality agreement related to documents obtained via the Production, the Parties may seek use of documents obtained via the Production pursuant to a Court order on notice to the Parties.

6. This Protocol Order does not affect the use of any document obtained by means other than via the Production, even if such document is included in the Production.

7. This Protocol Order is without prejudice to any party in interest seeking to obtain documents from any of the Parties pursuant to motion or process, except as set in the following paragraph.

8. If the Recipients receive any request, subpoena or otherwise, for the Production, any document obtained via the Production production or the substance of any document obtained via the Production, the Recipients will provide reasonable notice to counsel for the Debtors of such request to allow the Debtors to respond and object to such request.

9. Nothing herein shall be deemed to limit the Debtors' use of any Company documents, including documents in the Email Accounts.

10. Privilege Review. Counsel for the Debtors shall conduct a review of each email rendered by the Searches for attorney-client privilege and attorney work product protection, and shall take all steps necessary to preserve such attorney-client privilege or attorney work product protection, including full or partial redaction of such privileged or work product information as appropriate (the "Privilege Review"). To the extent counsel for the Debtors redact any information for privilege, counsel for the Debtors shall produce to HW and the Committee a privilege log that complies with Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)(5). The Privilege Review and preparation of the privilege log shall be included in the Cost Estimate, as defined and described in Paragraph 8 below.

11. Inadvertent Production. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any privilege of the Debtors. The Parties acknowledge and agree that the Debtors do not agree or intend to produce any privileged information by virtue of this Protocol Order. In the event the Debtors inadvertently produce privileged information in the Production, the Debtors shall promptly notify the Recipients of such inadvertent production and Recipients agree to immediately return or destroy all copies of such privileged document to Debtors and further agree not to use the document for any purpose whatsoever. The Parties further agree that the inadvertent production of any privileged information hereunder shall not constitute a waiver of any applicable privilege, including but not limited to the attorney-client privilege, attorney work-product protection or any other privilege or protection recognized by law. Recipients expressly agree not to make any argument in any forum or any matter that a privilege or protection has been waived as a result of the Production.

12. Compensation by HW for Production And Related Expenses. HW shall bear the full cost of the Searches, Privilege Review, Production and all other expenses related thereto, including reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees of the Debtors in connection with the Searches, Privilege Review, Protective Order, Production and all other expenses related thereto. The Debtors shall provide to HW an estimate of the anticipated costs, fees and expenses related to running the Searches, conducting the Privilege Review and making the Production as set forth in this Protocol Order (the "Cost Estimate"). For the avoidance of doubt, the Cost Estimate shall include, but shall not be limited to, the costs, reasonable and necessary fees and actual expenses of negotiating and drafting this Protocol Order and determining the amount of the Cost Estimate.

13. In advance of the Production, HW shall provide to Debtors a check or wire in the amount of the Cost Estimate. For the avoidance of doubt, counsel for the Debtors shall not have any obligation whatsoever under this Protocol Order or the 2004 Order to run any Searches or to produce any emails until the advance payment has been received and cleared in full by the Debtors. The Debtors shall use the advance payment of the Cost Estimate solely to cover the actual costs of the Searches, the Privilege Review, the Protective Order and the Production, including all related expenses such as reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees, vendor fees, production costs and any other actual costs associated with complying with the 2004 Order. Upon completion of the Production, the Debtors will return to counsel for HW the difference, if any, between the Cost Estimate and the actual costs incurred by the Debtors. To the extent the Cost Estimate is less than the actual costs incurred by the Debtors in connection with the Searches, the Privilege Review and the Production, Debtors shall require counsel for HW to promptly deposit additional funds into Debtors' account in an amount to be determined by Debtors to be a reasonable estimate to complete the Production.

14. Additional Payments by HW to Debtors. HW shall also be responsible for the payment of reasonable and necessary attorneys' fees and actual costs incurred by the Debtors for prior searches run at HW's request in November and December 2017. Debtors have submitted to HW an invoice for the amount of such prior searches, which HW has paid in full.

15. HW's Personal Effects. HW shall also be responsible for the reasonable and necessary fees, costs and actual expenses incurred by the Debtors in connection with moving HW's personal effects in December 2017. Debtors have submitted to HW an invoice for the amount of such moving expenses, which HW has paid in full.

16. Additional Requests. Counsel for the Debtors and counsel for HW agree to meet and confer in good faith with respect to any additional reasonable searches as may be requested by HW; provided, however, that Debtors are under no obligation to run any searches or produce any documents, other than pursuant to the 2004 Order. Counsel for the Debtors agree to consult with counsel for the Committee before agreeing to any additional searches. Counsel for HW agrees and understands that any additional searches shall be at the sole expense of HW.

17. Disputes. Any disputes relating to this Protocol Order shall be presented to this Court, which shall have sole jurisdiction over such disputes. HW has consented to such jurisdiction.
